NO NAME VACANCY (TEMPORARY REPLACEMENT)

OUTREACH SUPPORTER

No Name Kitchen is a grassroots independent movement defending freedom of movement through both humanitarian and political actions to provide people on the move with means for their self-protection, while denouncing border violence to raise awareness and advocate for a real change.

NNK is calling for an activist willing to give a hand as Outreach Supporter.

Main Responsibilities

- Connect with NNK's activists during and after their field experiences to support the organization of awareness and networking events.
- Develop partnerships with collaborating spaces (cafés, bookstores, social centers, squats, museums, shops, cultural venues) to serve as info points, distribution and event-hosting spots
- Develop interpretative and visual materials for exhibitions and public events.
- Contribute to messaging and narrative framing connected to freedom of movement and antiracism.

Profile

- Strong social and networking skills.
- Fluency in multiple languages (the more, the better).
- Graphic design skills (illustration highly valued).
- Experience in copywriting and communication.
- Proven experience and commitment to migration struggles and freedom of movement.
- High level of autonomy and organizational capacity.

Preference will be given to people with lived migration experience.

Conditions

- Temporary replacement: late March – August. Kick-off: As soon as possible.
- Part-time: 12–15 hours per week (to be defined depending on availability and skills).
- Flexible schedule.
- Wages according to NNK's salary grid.

How to Apply

Send and email before March 9th at 23:59 to vacancies@nonamekitchen.org

We don't need your CV, but a short motivation paragraph in the body of the email and one example of your art (an illustration, a picture, a text, an idea... whatever you feel shows your out-of-the-box mindset). We are looking for commitment, creativity, and political clarity. If this resonates with you, we'd love to hear from you.
